

POINTERS ON THE RACES.

A Stake Event and a Handicap for Morris Park's Last Day.

The Opening Race Should Furnish a Good Contest.

The Morris Park meeting ends to-day. The programme is not especially attractive, but, nevertheless, it may furnish some very fair sport. The Anticipation Stakes for two-year-olds and the Vreeland Handicap for three-year-olds are the features. Dobbins and Declare meet again in the Anticipation, and they give away a great deal of weight to Nahma, Despot, Crossfire and other good ones. If they can perform this task and win they must be set down as real good colts.

In the Vreeland, Ajax, St. Michael, Spartan, Emile Bey, Monmouth and other good ones will probably start. They ought to make a good race.

The opening dash may be interesting, as it has St. Florian, Wah Jim, Major Daily and Fremont entered.

The other events are not especially interesting.

The track will be fast and dry. The entries and selections are as follows:

First Race—Anticipation, for two-year-olds, 110 yards, 1:10. Entries: Dobbins, Declare, Nahma, Despot, Crossfire, Emile Bey, Monmouth, Spartan, St. Michael, Ajax, St. Florian, Wah Jim, Major Daily, Fremont. Selections: Dobbins, Declare, Nahma, Despot, Crossfire, Emile Bey, Monmouth, Spartan, St. Michael, Ajax, St. Florian, Wah Jim, Major Daily, Fremont.

Second Race—Vreeland Handicap, for three-year-olds, 110 yards, 1:10. Entries: Dobbins, Declare, Nahma, Despot, Crossfire, Emile Bey, Monmouth, Spartan, St. Michael, Ajax, St. Florian, Wah Jim, Major Daily, Fremont. Selections: Dobbins, Declare, Nahma, Despot, Crossfire, Emile Bey, Monmouth, Spartan, St. Michael, Ajax, St. Florian, Wah Jim, Major Daily, Fremont.

Third Race—St. Florian, Wah Jim, Major Daily, Fremont. Selections: Dobbins, Declare, Nahma, Despot, Crossfire, Emile Bey, Monmouth, Spartan, St. Michael, Ajax, St. Florian, Wah Jim, Major Daily, Fremont.

ALL SALARIES WILL BE PAID.

Comptroller Myers Says Teachers Are Unnecessarily Alarmed.

The Deficit Can Be Made Up by Proper Economy.

Comptroller Myers said this morning that there was unnecessary agitation over the impending deficiency of $46,000 in the teachers' salary fund of the Board of Education.

The teachers are greatly disturbed over the prospect of having their salaries cut down to meet the deficiency, which the Board of Estimate and Apportionment has refused to make up.

The School Teachers' Mutual Benefit Association appointed a committee of three to wait on the Comptroller and learn if the July salaries would be paid. The committee saw Deputy Comptroller Storrs.

"Mr. Storrs," said the Comptroller, "told the Committee that the question whether salaries would be paid was the most absurd he ever heard. I imagine that statement. Of course the July salaries and salaries for all other months will be paid. If there are any deductions it will not be I who will make them."

"The Board of Education makes up its pay roll, not I. They send them to me and I pay the amount set opposite each name. I have nothing to do with cutting down salaries and do not favor the proposition."

The Board of Estimate has asked the Board of Education to practise economy, and if they follow our advice I think they can save enough to make up the deficiency. There are thirty or forty items which they can appropriate on which they can economize.

They have $167,000 for special repairs, $23,000 for gas, $15,000 for corporate salaries and so on.

The Board saved $7,000 on salaries in 1900 and $12,000 in 1902. They got for salaries this year the same amount as last year, over $3,000,000, or $33,000 more. If there is a deficiency it does not and cannot exist before the school year ends in December.

Salad in Makes a Record.

Goes a Mile in 2.09 1/2 Over a Half-Mile Track at Wilmington.

WILMINGTON, Del., June 16.—In the presence of 200 people James Green yesterday drove his pacing stallion, Salad in, one mile in 2.09 1/2 over the half-mile track at Wawaset Park here, beating the world's pacing or trotting record over a half mile track.

The quarters were made as follows: First quarter, 1:30 1/2; half mile, 1:03 3/4; three-quarters, 1:30 1/2; mile, 2:09 1/2. Salad in's previous best record was 2:11 1/2, made at Philadelphia last year.

He is half brother of Stamboul (2:07 1/2), his sire being Sultan.

CRONIN'S OPINION OF MEDIUMS.

He Doesn't Believe in Spiritualistic Seances, but He's Seen Spirits.

"Good morning," said the Allerman, as the reporter entered the saloon. "Warm weather," and the member of the First continued to crack ice for the runner-up and Emile Bey should not be worse than third.

"What do you think of these spirit seances, Mr. Cronin?"

"No, these mediums these fellows that bring back the dead."

"Some of them have you been going against? Some of that boozing around Sixth street? Been drinking grass punch?"

"No, this is straight—no jolly, true bill—there's a fellow out on Olive street claims that he can bring back the dead—bring back anything that is gone or lost."

"I wish he'd take a whirl at that slate box 'o' the bar and get a few of those bills. Does he rent them out?"

"Why the dead cuffs he brings back."

"No, you pay to go to see them."

"The man wiped his hands on his apron and started to cut up a pineapple. "Pay to see them? No, not much. I don't. I saw them once, only once, and honest, they were all red and green. No, sir, Cronin paid two hundred dollars to keep from seeing 'em."

"Just then a man, the soda-water collector, came in with a bill, and as the Allerman pulled a roll from each pocket he remarked: 'You want, Scullin's or Baumhoff's?'"

RATS IN THE PENSION OFFICE.

The Girls Jump on Desks and Scream When They Appear.

Rats infest the Pension Office in Washington. There is some complaint against them, says the Louisville Courier-Journal, and traps are set every night now for them.

It has not been found that they do any harm, but the ladies have some time when one of them appears, and the commotion that follows is entry on the scene is not thought to be conducive to good discipline.

The pension office has rats now and then scold at the idea that the average woman is afraid of them, and the commotion that follows is entry on the scene is not thought to be conducive to good discipline.

GRUESOME, BUT NOT ILLEGAL.

The Carlyle Harris Play Not Yet Interfered With.

Recorder Smyth Says He Will Pay No Attention to It.

Although no criminal case in America has history ever attracted more public interest than that of Carlyle W. Harris and the poisoning of his pretty school-girl wife, Mary Helen Neilson Potts, the public does not seem to be very much interested in the sensational play in German now on the boards of a Bowery theatre, "The Life and Death of Carlyle Harris, or, the Road to the Electric Chair."

The play is a dreadfully realistic adaptation of the scenes in the Harris case from the poisoning of the girl-wife down to the conviction of the student. The realism stops only at the electric chair.

That is suggested merely in the "grand vision" of Mrs. Harris which is the concluding scene.

Carlyle Harris is the heavy frequent of course, and he makes up in good imitation of the student. He gets hissed every time he appears on the stage, and he is a disposition on the part of the women to applaud him.

"Carlyle Harris is a real character," is easily understood to represent the beautiful scene of the Harris case, and he makes up in good imitation of the student. He gets hissed every time he appears on the stage, and he is a disposition on the part of the women to applaud him.

WOULDN'T HEAR WITNESSES.

Inspector Williams Dismisses the Hodge Clubbing Case.

Barran Appears with His Arm and Head Bandaged.

Inspector Williams, without hearing the witnesses, a score of whom were at Police Headquarters this morning to testify that Gustave Barran, a waiter, of 52 Broadway street, was brutally clubbed by Policeman John Hodge, of the Elbridge street station, on Sunday afternoon, dismissed the complaint and sent Barran and his friends away without redress.

Williams stated that he had thoroughly investigated the case and was satisfied that the policeman was not at fault.

When an "Evening World" reporter asked the Inspector what he would do if you want any information go out in the street and obtain it from the witnesses.

Lawyer W. J. A. Coffey, who had been retained by Barran to present his case, complained that Inspector Williams did not recognize any lawyer in his dealing with the case.

"Barran was stopped on a score of witnesses waiting to testify to what happened at the Elbridge street station," said Coffey. "Barran was stopped on a score of witnesses waiting to testify to what happened at the El
